

I'll Be Here

(Words & Music ©James Suart)

[Verse 1]

Your love affair is over - your heart has run for cover
And we both know he let you down
You trusted him again though - this time you should have said "no"
I guessed he'd never stay around
Coz all along the way he treated you so casually -
So I'll be here if you need me

[Refrain]

I'll be here, I'll be here - oh oh oh oh

[Verse 2]

I know what you've been thinking - your world is slowly sinking
And all because he led you on
But all this cloudy weather - just can't go on for ever
And soon the grey skies will be gone
And all the pain you hold inside will slowly wash away -
Coz I'll be here for you someday

[Middle 8]

I'll be here for you - anytime you want me to
Coz you're the one - the only one I'm thinking of
Don't you know, love can grow
I'll be here for you... (yeah)

[Instrumental]

[Reprise]

But all this cloudy weather - just can't go on for ever
And soon the grey skies will be gone
Coz you were there to dry my tears when I was lost at sea -
So I'll be here if you need me
Yeah I'll be here if you need me
Said I'll be here when you need me

[Refrain]

I'll be here, I'll be here - oh oh oh oh (x6)

[Instrumental to fade]
